Greetings, Seasonal Property Owners!

Your Immediate Action is Needed:

Last week we asked you to write your legislator. A few of you did write, a responses from your legislators, and did forward them to us. GOOD WOR only a few. We must FLOOD the legislature. ACT TODAY!

The DEFICIT is $5 BILLION and growing. Some say it could reach $7 Billic February.

To put this into perspective, the entire budget is $38 Billion. If Minnesota employee who had an advanced degree, and thereby cut all that expense save only One Billion Dollars. If Minnesota stopped funding all state troop closed every college and university in the state, we would just begin to b: the $5 Billion number.

Governor Pawlenty has signaled that he will not raise income taxes or sal will cut money going to local governments. This will put incredible pressu property taxes. Unprecedented pressure. Frightening pressure. Legislator scrambling to find a group to bear this burden, and WE MUST SPEAK OUT

Cabins and hunting lands have had HUGE property tax increases due to tl bubble. Many of us did not even get relief with the collapse of the market prices have not yet caught up with our assessments yet. And now that th burst, we must not be the targets for even bigger taxes.

All Minnesotans will have to bear some pain in balancing this budget. BUT OWNERS have been paying more than our fair share for years.

WRITE TODAY. Write the legislator where you Live and Vote — not where located.

Mass mailed post cards do not work and neither do form letters. A hand v best. An email is second best. Phone calls are also very good, but it can b get a legislator on the phone.
